

Kayo at Redondo Arena Breaks Deadlock Draws by Popular Fighters

A kayo scored by Bobby Briggs, North American scrapper, over Jack Shields, Central ave. ace, Tuesday night at the Redondo Athletic club arena broke the deadlock of three previous draws between the pair. Next Tuesday night, Sept. 9th, the Admission Day card will

NORTHROP BOMBERS PUT OUT OF NATIONAL SEMIPRO SERIES

Until the eighth inning of their quarter-final game with Worcester, Mass., the Northrop Bombers, California champions, seemed to have things pretty well under control in the Wichita national semipro tournament last Friday night. They held a 3-2 lead but they collapsed as Worcester chased across five runs to provide the victory margin of 7 to 6.

Enid, Okla., won the national tournament for the second successive year when they defeated Waco, Texas 9 to 3 in the final game Monday night.

The defeat tossed the Californians out of the running for national semi-pro honors after they had won four games. They had previously lost to Enid, Okla., 6 to 0 on Aug. 24. Following that defeat, Northrop came back to lick the Solomon Kandy Kids of Wichita 2 to 1 in what was reported the wildest finish since a riot in 1939 national games.

The Californians' winning run in the eighth of that thriller game "will be disputed as long as baseball is played in Wichita," commented one Kansas sports writer. He reported:

How Fight Started
"With fully 5,000 of the original of 7,000 still on hand for the 10 p.m. game, the Bombers scored their second and unlooked-for tally in the eighth on a peculiar play, the like of which veteran followers fail to recall. The play was interference of a fielder, Catcher Angley, with a runner trying to score. Angley was standing on the baseline near third without the ball.

"When Empire Eley called the interference and allowed a run, there arose one of the most bitter disputes ever watched here with the Kandy Kids storming and stomping around for 15 minutes, at first leaving the game and then on advice of sponsor playing it out under protest. The dispute came up as massive 'Two Ton' Tom Angley, Solomon catcher, blocked a runner (Arico) near third base.

"The play was brought about as Arico doubled with the score tied in the eighth. He advanced to third on a bunt. This brought up James who hit a ball to second base. The ball was relayed to the plate. Then Arico dashed back to third and as the ball was tossed there, started in again. But as he turned he hit the massive form of Angley head-on.

Bombers Record Reviewed
"It was at this point that Empire Eley called Arico safe at home with a winning run because of the fielder's interference. It was a hectic moment all around but order finally was restored only to break out again in the ninth as Angley was called out at first on a play which was very close, in fact it looked like Angley arrived safely to many fans. But Ump's Glenn stuck to his decision although pushed around by the Kids.

Tillie Schafer allowed the Kids seven hits while Northrop was collecting six off the Solomon pitcher. In the Bombers' final game at Wichita, Manager John Miljus called on three mounds-men - White, Gabler and Scott - but they had little success as all showed signs of wildness against the Massachusetts team.

The Northrop Bombers, who defeated Lockheed Alcraft on Aug. 6, in the 31st game of the 1941 California Semipro Tournament at Torrance city park, traveled back to Wichita, accompanied by Dale Riley, California semipro commissioner and Torrance recreation director. Riley returned Monday from the national tournament where he conferred with semipro officials concerning the 1942 series in Torrance.

The California champs won their first national tourney game 7 to 0, defeating Milwaukee, Wis. Thirty-two clubs were entered in the Wichita series. The Bombers beat the Stearman Trainers of Wichita 6 to 4. Then they blasted Mt. Pleasant, Tex., 8 to 1. They lost to Enid, Okla., 6 to 0; continued in the running by nosing out Solomon's Kandy Kids 2 to 1 and then dropped out of the tournament with the second loss - to Worcester, Mass., 7 to 6.

Loyola to Admit Enlisted Men to Games for 50 cents

Uncle Sam's uniformed sons while wearing the "tin hat" of the army, the bright colors of the marines or the jaunty blues of the navy, will get a "break" at all of the eight home Loyola University football games.

With the mailing of the annual football information, Lion athletic officials, announced a new policy of admitting all Service men in uniform to the games for 50 cents, thus cutting in half the regular reserved seat admission price.

Featuring a ten night game schedule, eight of them at home, the season opens with Redlands University on Friday night, Sept. 26 and closes with the University of Nevada, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 30. For the first time in their recent history, the Lions reach into a varied section of the country to pull their gridiron opponents.

INYO COUNTY DEER
Late reports from packers operating in Inyo county indicate that deer hunting season in that area, which opens Sept. 16, should be one of the best in years. Although bucks will probably be high up on opening day, hunters and local storms will no doubt drive them down later in the season.

The triumph of the paleface is complete. Penobscot Indians in Maine have organized a Boy Scout troop.

Thomas B. McCabe

NEW Deputy Director of the Division of Priorities, Office of Production Management, is Thomas B. McCabe, president of the Scott Paper Company, Chester, Pa., and chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia. He will have charge of all operating and procedural functions, according to an announcement by E. R. Stettinius, Jr., Director of Priorities. Mr. McCabe took an indefinite leave of absence from his company and resigned other important directorships and positions, to take the government post.

Indians' Win Streak Broken

The Torrance Indians slipped out of a 12-game winning streak Sunday when they lost to Gaffers and Sattler 6 to 4. Going in to the first half of the seventh inning with a four-all tie, the Gaffers and Sattler Club doubles by Turchi and Langston followed with a single by Pitcher Chase put across the two deciding runs.

Chase was the winning pitcher, allowing the Indians nine hits, four runs. George Brown, losing pitcher, allowed ten hits, 4 runs in five and one-third innings pitched. Howard, relieving Brown in the sixth, gave up seven hits and two runs.

Next Sunday the Indians will try to regain their stride against a powerful Pasadena nine, managed by Ray French, Association booking secretary of semi-pro baseball.

1,284 New State Laws Effective on Sept. 13

When enactments of the 1941 State Legislature become effective a few days hence—on Sept. 13, to be exact—you can cut loose if you like, and drive 55 miles an hour on any State highway without fear of the traffic cop trailing along behind you.

You can tell your wife you don't like spinach—and drink your vitamins along with your milk, providing your dairyman takes advantage of the new vitamin-milk law.

And if it is absolutely essential that you work a seven-day week, you can do it without fear of being jailed because you milked the cow on Sunday.

There are other things you can't do, however — many of them! For example, if you have a good income, and your parents need assistance, you can't just pass your responsibility along to the State and expect it to take care of them with an old age pension. One of the new laws provides that adult children must contribute to the support of their parents if they are able, and if such aid is necessary.

If you haven't got a job, you can't go on SRA either, because the Legislature decided there's plenty of work for everyone able to work—and cut out all appropriations for the Relief Administration.

And if you've taken an oath to obey the orders of any official, don't try to get a job on any public payroll. You're just not eligible.

State Picnic-Reunions

ALL STATES . . . Folks from every state in the Union are invited to the picnic at Long Beach Recreation park Saturday, Sept. 13. A barbecue and hog-calling contest is planned.

KANSAS . . . The annual fall picnic reunion for all former Kansans will be held Saturday, Sept. 13, in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles.

Beauty Seeks Old West Crown

Eloise Tate, San Francisco entry in the "Girl of the Olden West" contest to be staged at the California State Fair on August 31, shows off the plectered pantaloons that her great-grandmother might have worn, and which she plans to wear in the finale of the contest in an effort to win a share of the $500 cash awards on "Old West Day." The contest is open to single girls between 16 and 25 years old. Entries close Aug. 28. The State Fair opens Aug. 28 and runs through Sept. 7.

County Tax Rate Dropped Cent To $1.46 by Board

Los Angeles county taxpayers were assured of a reduced tax burden this year as a result of action by the Board of Supervisors in adopting a rate of $1.467. This rate, reflecting a reduction for the third successive year, was 1.22 cents below last year's rate of $1.479. It is a reduction of 4.73 cents below the $1.51 rate of 1938-39, when the successive reductions started.

"These continued reductions have been made by operating efficiencies despite steadily increasing costs for relief," Colonel Wayne Allen, chief administrative officer, explained. "Since 1927 our increasing costs for aged aid, blind aid and orphan aid alone have increased $3,494,517 or 14.5 cents on the tax rate."

Of the $1.467 rate, $7706 will be for charity aid and $6921 for all the other governmental services. This rate will raise a total of $34,960,343 as against a total of $34,168,290 raised by last year's rate.

In addition to the general county rate, tax bills will include a flood control district rate of 22 cents, the same as last year, and a Metropolitan Water District rate of 48 cents as against 49 cents for last year. In unincorporated areas the special county library rate will be 6.25 cents, the same as last year, and the road district rate 6 cents as against 5.85 cents of a year ago. To this must be added the city and school district taxes established in the various areas, as well as special district taxes levied for special services.

Draft Registrants Get Mass Examination

A mass physical examination was held for Selective Service registrants with Torrance Board No. 280 at the county health center on Carson st., Tuesday night. Clerk Carl Marsteller said he had 100 actual and potential Class 1-A men from a total registration of 3,200. The next Selective Service call from this area is scheduled for Sept. 29 when six young men are due to compose the 16th quota.
